

JERICHO ARTS CENTRE ART EXHIBITIONS. TERMS AND AGREEMENT

The Jericho Arts Centre (JAC) is a performing arts facility managed by the Friends of JAC Society (FoJACS) and is, from time to time, open to artists for exhibitions in the lobby. Except by special arrangement, the exhibitor must be aware that his/her work will be available for viewing by the public only at such times as the JAC is hosting a performance.

1. Artists request use of the gallery through an online application web form at www.jericoartscentre.com/visualarts.html. The FoJACS Volunteer Curator of Visual Arts (JCVA) reviews proposals & portfolios and makes final determinations on all exhibit details.
2. Artists are responsible for the setting up and dismantling of their exhibits according to the times scheduled.
3. Artists may invite guests to view their exhibition during the time between Box office and House opening (for audience to take their seats). Guests must leave JAC when the House is opened, unless they have tickets to the show. Artists should check with the JCVA re :availability of comp and/or promotional tickets for themselves and their guests.
4. A reception may be held during the course of the artist's exhibition by special arrangement with the JCVA and the Stage Manager for the running show. Receptions will also be subject to confirmation by JAC management and all relevant rules.
4. Exhibitors pay no entrance fee. A 10% commission is payable to JAC on work sold that can be attributed to FoJACS activities for this exhibition.
5. Prior to the exhibit, artists must provide to the JCVA :
 - (a) A list of the artworks to be displayed, with name, title, size and selling price (if applicable) for each piece
 - (b) A short biography and statement about their work
 - (c) A signed copy of this document
6. The use of the Jericho Arts Centre's Gallery is conditional and dependent upon compliance with all the rules and regulations as established by FoJACS.
- 7 FoJACS assume no liability either explicitly or implicitly in permitting the artist to display his/her artwork in the gallery. The artist assumes any and all risks incident to the display.

The undersigned agrees to ensure that activities are conducted in JAC so as not to endanger any person; and to indemnify and hold harmless the City of Vancouver, the Board of Parks and Recreation of the City of Vancouver, the Friends of JAC, and any of their respective employees, officers, volunteers, or agents against any and all claims for injury to person and property, however caused, and arising out of the activities of the undersigned or out of the occupation or possession of the premises by the undersigned. The undersigned agrees to carry adequate public liability and property damage insurance to cover such risk.
